WCF Financial Bank Adds Experienced Local Lender in Webster City

(June 7, 2021) –WCF Financial Bank announces that Brad Cheyne has been named Vice President/Lending. Cheyne began his duties on Tuesday, June 1 and is working out of the main office in Webster City.

Cheyne is a native and current resident of Webster City with 15 years of bank lending experience, all in Webster City, including more than 5 years with WCF Financial Bank from 2001-2006. He is a second generation WCF employee, following in the footsteps of his father, Lawrence, who worked for the bank for 30 years. Cheyne is a graduate of Webster City High School and Loras College (Dubuque, Iowa). He has been an active member of the Webster City community, serving and volunteering for numerous organizations including Hamilton County Ducks Unlimited, Pheasants Forever, and Trinity Lutheran Church.

“I’m very pleased to have Brad rejoining the WCF family,” said bank President/CEO Tim Kluender. “He has demonstrated a commitment to community banking and the Webster City community, and possesses the experience and skills to help us continue to grow and serve our customers and shareholders.” Cheyne will be responsible for originating all types of loans.

“It’s wonderful to return to WCF Financial Bank, where my banking career started,” said Cheyne. “I look forward to helping former and new customers with their lending and banking needs. It’s great to be back home at WCF.”
